

Banquet Bar Guidelines

- the sales and service of alcoholic beverages is regulated by the Washington State liquor control board and as a licensee, campbell's resort will not serve minors at any time
- all guests will be required to provide proper identification upon request
- Washington State liquor laws prohibit private liquor from being brought into the same area where campbell's is providing a liquor beverage service
- no beverage of any kind may be brought into campbell's meeting/banquet rooms, this policy does not apply to individual suites or hotel rooms
- wine or champagne may be brought in assessing a $20 per bottle or $30 per magnum bottle corkage fee and a campbell's wine pourer service is required if a bartender is not present to open and pour it
- for groups of 125 people or more a second bartender or bar will be required

all wine, beer and liquor prices are subject to change we charge at current market value not quoted prices all set, bartender, server and wine pourer fees are subject to an 8.2% Washington State sales tax effective january 2015

all prices are subject to change without notice
